Yellow warning
Rain

Between 19:00 Sun 18 Jun 2023 and
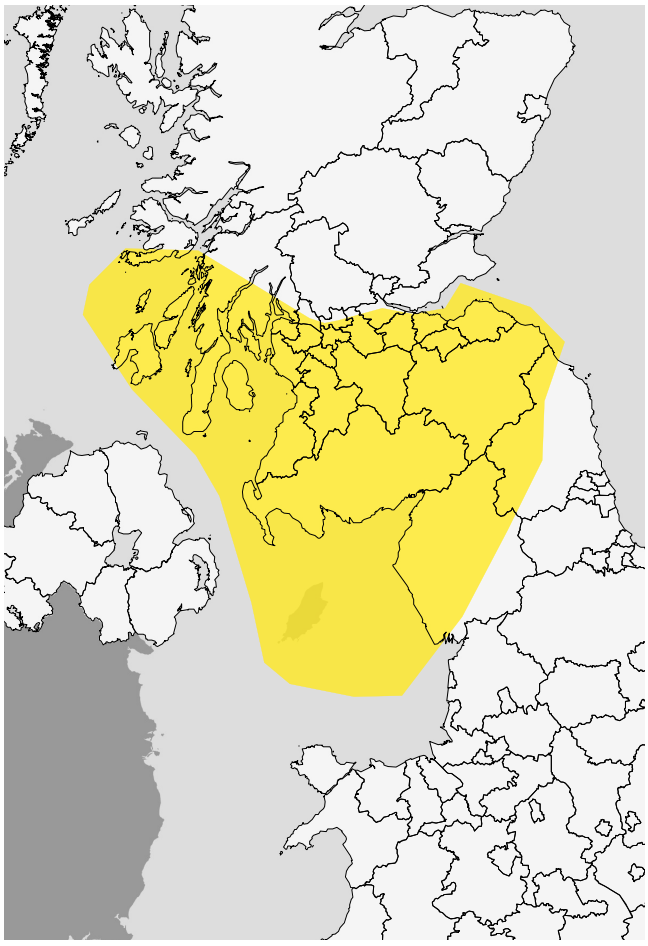
23:59 Sun 18 Jun 2023



Heavy rain moving northwards on Sunday evening may bring some disruption

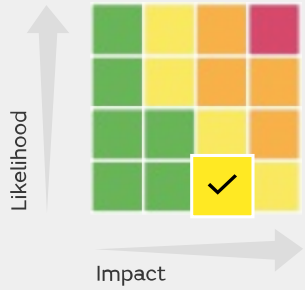
What to expect

- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Where flooding occurs, there is a slight chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- There is a small chance that some communities will become cut off by flooded roads
- There is a slight chance of power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

A large area of heavy rain will move northwards across northern England and into southern Scotland during Sunday evening.

Whilst some thunder is possible, heavy rain is likely to be the main hazard with 15-25 mm of rain likely widely in 3 hours, and with 40-60 mm possible in places. One or two locations could see 80 mm or more, although this is a very small likelihood in any given place. Some localised flooding and disruption is possible as a result.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
